

I am increasingly concerned as citizen of this country about the corporate ownership of the mainstream media. I feel that there is a censorship being practiced. The news being reported is the news that serves the corporations that own the media outlets. I am against the deregulation that is presently being proposed.